When you receive your Yamaguchi frameset, you can be assured that it was created with the same meticulous care and construction, whether you are a nationally ranked sprinter or a weekend warrior. Each frameset, either fillet-brazed or lugged, is individually hand-brazed by Koichi Yamaguchi and finished to the highest standards, using only the latest in high-technology frame tubing sets. Nothing leaves the workshop unless it is perfect and has had the stamp of approval of the master frame builder. He treats each frame as if it were his own. See the accompanying sheets for detailed descriptions of the frames pictured in this brochure.

Ride a Yamaguchi and ride the world!
