

'92 BIKE SHOWS

Space age: Yeti showed up with this radical rear suspension bike that, unlike so many others, was rideable. The bike was designed by Chris Herting, with help from Johnny O'Mara's former factory Kawasaki mechanic, Jim Felt. Due to the lack of chainstay/swingarm clearance, a Shimano FM-5 drive train was necessary. The solid steel cranks were replaced with Tange fork legs for less weight.